Habit-forming Medicines.

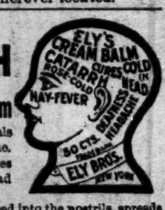
Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Recognizing this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are now of KNOWN COMPOSITION. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Drs. Grover Coe, of New York; Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, Phila.; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO,

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring a real substantial help. Nothing certainly, is more convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely fall for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

MRS BASSETT COLLAPSE.

Mr. Chas. C. Bassett was on the witness stand in Omaha, Neb., all day yesterday in the divorce case which she is prosecuting against her husband, Chas. C. Bassett, of Washington, and when court adjourned, after the most searching cross examination ever carried on in an Omaha court, Mrs. Bassett was in such a state of collapse that the judge announced there would be no session of court today in order that Mrs. Bassett might recover from the ordeal.

Another developement of the day was the fact that Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt, of the Noble Street Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, has sent his resignation as pastor of that church to its officials. Mr. Hunt is co-respondent in the case at Washington and is mixed up in the Omaha case. He refuses to discuss his action in resigning.

Yet another developement was the attempted kidnapping of the children of Mrs. Bassett, who are in Omaha with her.

The case opened yesterday morning with further details of Mrs. Bassett as to cruelties practiced upon her by her husband. As she expressed it: "My life has been a hell ever since two days after our marriage."

She told of a second case in which her husband had whipped her with a Mexican black snake whip because she refused to do as he wished her to do.

When cross-examination began Mrs. Bassett clashed with the attorney a dozen times and by her quick and witty sallies caused even Judge Redick to laugh. But as the examination grew hotter she weakened and four different times during the day was compelled to retire to a private room, one time demanding and receiving a physician's aid. Court adjourned a half hour ahead of time to prevent a complete collapse.

During the cross-examination Mrs. Bassett was asked: "Have you not been deeply in love with another man not your husband since your marriage?"

"No, I have not."

"Did you not say you loved the Rev. Mr. Hunt?"

"Never said it, and I never was."

During all the questioning Mr. Hunt sat with Mrs. Bassett's attorneys and coached them continually on the case, with which he shows the greatest familiarity.

Twenty-seven Co-respondents.

Twenty-seven co-respondents are named by Edwin Kenneth Norton, of New York, in the divorce suit on trial at New Haven, Conn., yesterday against his beautiful young wife, Josephine Celeste Birney Norton, with whom he eloped a year ago. Many of them are Yale students, sons of prominent men. Young Norton's father is a former president of the tin plate trust and is a millionaire.

Miss Birney was a New Haven cloak model, and was known as the prettiest girl in the city. All Yale was at her feet. Sons of multimillionaires paid her assiduous court.

Norton met her and was instantly in love with her, it was said, but there was one other well-known Yale boy in the same fix, who was supposed to have an excellent opportunity of capturing the coveted prize. Norton's haste was the sensation of the day. With the girl he went to Bridgeport January 16, 1906, and a justice of the peace married them. Norton was only 19 years old.

E. M. Norton, the father, was furious. He took his son, who was a freshman, out of college and hurried him off to Europe, at the same time engaging all uths to keep a weather eye on the conduct of the bride. She remained in New Haven.

The Superior Court is crowded with Yale men, who expect to be regaled with lively proceedings. Stories of late suppers, whisky and champagne by the wholesale have already been told.

Killed by a Musician.

A Richmond musician of the name of Harris shot Alphonso B. Fussell, of Richmond, after a dance at the Gladstone Wednesday night. Fussell died Thursday from the effects of his wounds. Harris is a musician of Richmond and had been engaged by Fussell, who had charge of the dance, to go to the Gladstone and play. Harris insisted that he be paid more than the contract called for. Fussell declared that he would pay the amount agreed upon and no more. This incensed Harris, and a fight on the floor of the dance hall was narrowly averted. After the dance was over Fussell started for his room at the Gladstone hotel and was met on the stairway by Harris, who insisted that he be paid more money. Fussell refused and a fist fight followed. When Harris saw that he was getting the worst of it he drew a pistol and shot Fussell three times, twice in the abdomen and once in the arm.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

The Cape Charles Fire.

The fire which threatened to destroy the entire resident portion of Cape Charles City at an early hour yesterday morning, was gotten under control by the fire department, with the assistance of the citizens, but not until it had destroyed the large livery stable of J. W. Gladstone, in which were 20 horses, all of which were burned to death. The fire had made such progress before it was discovered that it was impossible to get the horses out on account of the dense smoke and heat. Two small dwellings adjoining the livery stable, with their contents, were totally destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought that it caught from a match or a cigarette which was carelessly thrown in one of the stalls.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 16, 1907.

THE BLACK HORSE of famine is still in evidence in portions of Russia and China. It is feared that a million of human beings will perish in the Czar's realms during the next few months should relief not be forthcoming. Conditions are equally as gloomy in certain portions of the celestial empire, where it is reported that approximately ten million persons are about to perish for the necessaries of life. Destitute Chinamen are stripping bark from trees and eating the same, while others are selling or drowning their children. Thousands of suicides are also reported as the result of the prevailing famine. While billions of dollars are being expended annually for the maintenance of standing armies and in constructing "Dreadnoughts," and equally as many more by the opulent and thoughtless in dissipation, such pictures are being flashed upon the screens. Prophets and poets have long sighed for the time when men shall have beaten their swords into plow shares and their spears into pruning hooks, when nations shall cease to fight or prepare for conflicts and when every man can be seated under his own vine and fig tree with no one to make him afraid. When this blessed epoch shall have dawned upon the world, the billions of money locked up in battleships and war accoutrements generally can be directed toward alleviating the sufferings of mankind. But there is at present no sign whatever on the horizon to show that such an era is drawing near.

AT THE closing session of the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange in New York Thursday one of the delegates said:

If the custom tailors of the country hope to hold their own against the makers of ready-made clothing they must abandon the ancient ethics of their profession, which forbid them to advertise in the public press, and must adopt present-day methods and go in search of the customers whom they have waited for in the past.

The speaker advocated persistent, continuous advertising in the newspapers throughout the country and prophesied that if his advice is followed the American tailor soon will lend the clothes-makers of all nations. The delegate referred to is evidently wiser than many in his day and generation. Half a century ago a tailor would have had no more idea of starting in business without advertising in his city newspaper than of opening his shop minus "goose" and shears. Advertising was not only regarded as an essential by the tailor, but the dentist, physician, lawyer and those of other professions and callings advertised. With many this essential to success is overlooked in this day. Often neighbor has occassion to ask neighbor the names of city dentists, physicians, lawyers, tailors, &c. This was at one time unnecessary, as the cards of such could always be found under the classification head of "professional."

UNDER THE lash wielded by the President the San Francisco delegation, which came to Washington full of talk about war with Japan, and the United States Senate, which has been backing and filling on the conference report of the immigration bill, both yielded yesterday evening, with the result that the Japanese issue may be regarded as practically settled. This sweeping result followed a stormy session at the White House, where President Roosevelt and Secretary Root laid down the law to Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco, and his associates, and an equally stormy session in the Senate chamber, where Senator Tillman scathingly berated his colleagues for their tame submission to the executive whip. The end, however, was that the Senate agreed to vote today on the conference report on the immigration bill, which includes the provision against Asiatic coolies, and Mayor Schmitz promised the President that the Oriental schools in San Francisco will be abolished immediately upon the passage of the immigration bill as reported by the conferees.

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 16.

As soon as Congress has passed the pending immigration bill which contains a provision preventing Japanese coolies from coming into the United States from Hawaii or the Philippine Islands, the State Department will begin the negotiation of a treaty with Japan under the terms of which Japan will agree not to issue passports for Japanese laborers to go direct from their country to the United States. Positive information was obtained today that the original suggestion that the United States enact a law preventing Japanese coolies from coming into this country from its insular possessions, came from Japan. It appears that there has been a perfect understanding from the beginning between the governments of the United States and Japan, and the negotiations have been carried on in perfect harmony. The additional fact was discussed today that Mayor Schmitz and his associates from California have absolutely and in writing agreed to amend the school regulations of San Francisco after the passage of the immigration law, so that Japanese will be admitted to the public schools there on the same footing as other aliens.

Beginning on Monday both the House and Senate will meet every day at 11 o'clock in the morning instead of at noon. When the Smoot case is not under consideration next week the Senate will devote itself principally to appropriation bills which are in a backward state. The Postoffice appropriation bill, the main feature of which is a classification and increase of pay for all postal clerks, city and rural delivery carriers and the employees of the railway mail service, will occupy attention in the House next week. A vigorous fight is expected over the question of pay to railroads for carrying the mails, that is if Speaker Cannon can be prevailed upon to permit a rule for its consideration. The conference report on the immigration bill, as soon as the Senate agrees to it, will have the right of way in the House.

In explaining the postoffice appropriation bill before the House committee on the whole, Chairman Overstreet (rep. Ind.), in charge of the bill, said today that it carried the largest amount ever appropriated for in a single bill in this country. The appropriation amounts to $209,416,802. The features in the bill which will cause the most debate are those increasing the compensation of carriers and railway mail clerks; reducing the compensation for the transportation per-mile by railroads, providing a new system of weighing mail as a basis for pay of transportation, and for a commission to investigate business methods of the service.

Reed Smoot's fate will be settled in the Senate on Wednesday next when a vote will be taken on the resolution declaring that he is not entitled to his seat as a Senator from Utah. Consideration of this case, which has been before the Senate for the last three years, will occupy part of Monday and Tuesday and the whole of Wednesday's session and the vote will probably come late in the afternoon. Senators will not divide on party lines on this question and the votes cast both for and against Smoot will be contributed by both republicans and democrats. That Smoot will be upheld and will retain his seat is almost universally conceded. Smoot himself will make a short speech in his own behalf, probably on Tuesday. Senator Dillingham will speak in his favor and Senator Carmack may make some remarks. On Wednesday will come the closing arguments. Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, who conducted the inquiry into the case, will conclude for the prosecution and Senator Foraker will make the closing speech in behalf of Smoot.

Senator Aldrich is very anxious to secure early consideration of his financial bill. He will exert his influence to hasten action on the immigration bill in the hope that he can pass his currency measure some time today. If this should prove impossible it is his intention to take it up on Monday.

A total apropriation of $92,720,472 for the improvement of rivers and harbors is recommended in the bill reported today from the Senate committee on commerce. This is $8,519,334 more than was carried in the bill as it passed the House.

By a strict party vote the House committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce today ordered a favorable report on the Esch hours of labor bill as a substitute for the LaFollette measure of the Senate.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today: Postmasters in Virginia: John W. Davis, Rural Retreat; R. W. Garnett, Farmville; Thomas H. Smith, Manchester; William H. Parker, Onancock.

The effort to induce the Senate to authorize the construction of a deep waterway from Chicago to the Mississippi river failed. The House refused to grant this authority and the Senate committee followed suit.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 16.

SENATE.

The Senate today fixed upon Saturday February 23 for delivering eulogies in memory of the late Senator Alger (Michigan) and the late Representatives Hoar (Mass.) Hitt (Ills.) and Lester (Georgia.)

The Senate today passed a bill dividing Oregon into two judicial districts.

Opposition of southern Senators to the contract labor provision of the immigration bill was aggressively renewed in the Senate today, when the conference report on that measure, containing the President's method of excluding coolie labor from Japan, was taken up.

When the report was taken up Mr. Simmons raised the first democratic voice in advocacy of its adoption.

The fight opened in earnest when Mr. Dubois took the floor in pronounced opposition to the administration's provision excluding Japanese coolie labor.

HOUSE.

When order No. 13, convening the House at 11 o'clock instead of 12 noon went into effect today, only 34 members were present. Others arrived shortly making it respectable to transact public business.

By unanimous consent, the House passed a bill, providing for another land opening in the Rosebud Indian reservation in South Dakota. The tract to be opened includes about 1,000,000 acres.

The House by unanimous consent passed a bill, providing that by placing ten cents postage on a letter and properly making it, the letter shall be treated as if it bore a special delivery stamp.

Mr. Gardner induced the House to discharge the committee on immigration from further consideration of the resolution to request the Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor to send to the House the papers relating to the bringing of immigrants to South Carolina together with the opinion, if any, as to whether the immigants were brought to the State lawfully.

News of the Day.

Harry Corbett, brother of the ex-champion, was found dead in bed in San Francisco this morning.

A marked improvement in the condition of Mrs. John D Rockefeller is reported today at Lakewood, N. J.

News has been received at Victoria, B. C., by the steamer Miowera, that a hurricane has completely wiped out Cooktown, in North Australia. No lives were lost. The mometary loss will amount to $2,000,000.

While under the delusion that everybody had turned against him, General Manager D. Frank Snyder, of the Snyder Silk Ribbon Company, of Hagerstown, yesterday evening shot John W. Rohrer, secretary of the company, and then, turning the smoking weapon upon himself, tried to commit suicide. Snyder will likely die, while the injuries of Rohrer are not regarded as serious. The shooting occurred at the plant of the silk company.

In the French Chamber of Deputies yesterday M. Lefebure complained that the people of the Department of the Neuse, who would have to sustain the first shock in a war with Germany, were greatly exercised by the activity of the Germans on the frontier between Longwy and Montmody. General Picquart, minister of war, raised a storm of applause when he replied that if the Germans were violating the neutral territory of the grand duchy of Luxemburg, France would take measures to meet the situation.

After successfully eluding officers of the law for four years, Courtland Carter, aged twenty-five years, ended the chase yesterday afternoon by throwing himself in front of a rapidly moving freight train on the Indianapolis Southern Railroad at Helmsburg, twenty miles west of Columbus, Ind. He was ground to pieces. Four years ago Carter was convicted with others of having broken open and robbed a Pennsylvania freight car at that place, and was sentenced to the reformatory at Jeffersonville. The day before he was to have been conveyed to the reformatory he broke jail and, swimming across White river, eluded capture.

A settlement of the controversy in the Pacific coast States arising over the exclusion of Japanese pupils from public schools seemed to be in sight last night. The Senate will take a vote this evening on the amended immigration bill, which was reported by the conferees of the two Houses, which excludes Japanese coolies from landing on American soil except when provided with passports, either from their native land direct or from the Philippine and Hawaiian Islands. There is every prospect that the bill in its present shape will become a law. Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco, had a satisfactory conference with the President on the subject yesterday.

Mrs. Zeller, wife of John Zeller, of Annville, near Lebanon, Pa., was instantly killed by an explosion of dynamite at her home yesterday, and their two children—Lydia, aged 13 years, and Mary, aged 5 years—were so badly burned and lacerated that there is little hope of their recovery. The house was wrecked. Zeller placed three sticks of dynamite in the stove to thaw and went to work, neglecting to tell his wife that the dynamite was in the oven. What occurred after Zeller's departure will probably never be known, as neither child has regained consciousness. The explosion must have been terrific, as the flesh was torn from Mrs. Zeller's body in several places and two great holes were blown in her side and back.

The Corporation Commission.

As stated yesterday the Corporation Commission met at the County Court House that day to hear complaints which had been brought against the W., A. & F. C. Railway.

R. C. L. Moncure, Frank Lyon, and E. W. R. Ewing, of Alexandria county, and Luther M. Walter, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, appeared for the patrons of the road, and R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax county, for the company. Messrs. Moncure, Lyon and Ewing outlined the alleged hardships to which the commuters and shippers on the road are subjected.

It was charged that the cars of the company are not properly heated in cold weather; that the published schedule does not meet the demands of the patrons of the road and is not maintained, and that the rates for both passengers and freight are not equitable.

Mr. Moore denied a statement that the cars of the company are antiquated, and charged that an effort was being made to arouse prejudice. He admitted, however, that the cars were not always properly heated.

Referring to the rates charged for freight and passengers, he stated that they were filed with the corporation commission, as required by law, and were about on the same basis as the charges of other electric roads.

Mr. Moore stated that there were sixty-seven stopping points on the road for the convenience of passengers, and concluded by saying that ten miles of line is operated at an approximate annual loss of $15,000.

At the conclusion of Mr. Moore's remarks Judge Crump took occasion to state that the commission has full power to examine into the rolling stock and general equipment of the road, or through an expert.

The first witness was F. B. Hubbell, president of the company, who gave a detailed account of the operation of the road, the prevailing rates, operating expenses, &c. Mr. Hubbell was followed by several other employes of the road, whose testimony was along similar lines. Late in the afternoon several witnesses for the complainants testified and then a recess was taken till this morning when the hearing was resumed. A telephone message received at this office today said that the hearing would probably be concluded this evening. The decision of the commission will not be rendered for several days after the hearing.

The Suffrage Case.

"The constitution not only refused to take oath, but would not admit that there was honor among thieves. When the members of the convention determined to ram the constitution down the throats of the people they would not trust the officers of the State, but required all of them to take a test oath. They did elect a chairman. Any mob can do that. But I say they had no right to scour this State for the pretty politicians out of whom to make registrars to do dirty political work and to deprive men of their constitutional rights."

Such was Capt. John S. Wise's argument of the constitution in the Norfolk suffrage case, which was being argued before Judge Natham Goff in the United States Circuit Court in Richmond yesterday.

Capt Wise is now attorney for John E. Brickhouse, the Norfolk county negro who is trying to annul the constitution of Virginia on a case brought against two Norfolk county registrars, who refused to allow Brickhouse to vote in a precinct upon whose books his name did not appear.

Virginia News.

The will of the late Colonel R. H. Dulany who died near Upperville recently disposes of an estate worth $90,000.

Paul Graham, farmer, scholar, historian, and man of letters, died at the parish farm of Frederick county yesterday aged seventy-three years.

Rev. Thomas Marshall Ambler died February 12th in Williamsburg. He was the son of Major Thomas Marshall Ambler and of Lucy Johnson, of "Morven," Fauquier county.

Governor Swanson yesterday received a letter from Mrs. William J. Doss, of Hurt, Pittsylvania county, in which she says that children are attending the public school at that place who have one-seventh negro blood in their veins.

The big barn on the farm of Mrs. Eliza Bowen, near White Post, Clarke county, was destroyed by fire yesterday, causing a loss of $4,000, with insurance of $2,000. The barn was filled with valuable farming machinery, vehicles, feed, etc. A number of horses were gotten out with difficulty. Sparks from a nearby traction engine caused the fire.

A correspondent of the Fredericksburg Star writing from King George county says: "Now that Hon. John F. Rixey, the people's friend, has by the mysterious hand of providence been taken away, and rests, we believe, under the shade of the trees in the paradise of God, we, many of us at least, would be glad to see Hon. Robert E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax, succeed him. Surely this would be a fit tribute to honor the grandson of our great chieftain, the late Gen. R. E. Lee, whom we all loved and honored greatly."

Jr. O. U. A. M.

The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Appeal says:

After a war of five years between the "insurgent" and "loyalist" factions of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics in Virginia, it is announced that there is a strong probability of the wings of the order coming together. A conference of representatives of the warring interests will be held at the Richmond Hotel on Saturday, and the belief is expressed that an amicable understanding will be reached.

State Councilor C. R. Fellows, of the council in authority, representing the bulk of the membership in the State, called the Saturday conference in Richmond at the request of a number of "loyalist" leaders, who entertain a proposition to merge forces with the recognized body. For some weeks, in fact, since the victory of the "insurgents," efforts have been afoot with a view of bringing two factors together. The terms upon which the losing side was to be admitted to the stronger body have been the stumbling block. The "loyalists" applied for a State charter, and, it is said, they secured papers of incorporation, but, by attempting to operate under their provisions they would have placed themselves in contempt of the United States Supreme Court. Several meetings were held, one here, but all were without result. Now the "loyalists" have made further overtures, and it is anticipated that there will be "something doing" Saturday. James W. Jones, of Vienna, Va., is State councilor of the faction that is now seeking admission to the "insurgent" camp on the best terms it is possible to make.

Already three "loyalist" councils have gone over to the other side. They are Stuart's Draft, No. 198; Mattaponi, No. 220, and Bowling Green, No. 10. Fredericksburg, No. 14, has just made application to State Councilor Fellows for reinstatement in the State council. Mr. Fellows has instituted for the "insurgents" in the past few days the following new councils: Brigut's No. 107, with thirty-four members, and Benham's No. 34, with forty-two members.

Gives Estate to University.

A deed from John Armstrong Chanler conveying to rector and visitors of the University of Virginia his "Merrie Mills" estate, near Cobham, containing some 400 acres of land, residence, painting, statuary, books, furniture, chattels farming implements and livestock, has been admitted to record in the clerk's office of Albemarle county. The conveyance is subject to the right of Chanler to continue in possession during his life time and also to the life estate of Erie G. Money, of Clemont, described as Chanler's friend and agent.

The purpose of the conveyance is to secure eventually a home for such retired professors of the University as the rector and visitors may designate.

Mr. Chanler takes occasion in the preamble of the deed to give the history of his estrangement from his family, his incarceration in Bloomingale and his adjudgment to be insane by the Supreme Court of New York.

He declares his estrangement began on his marriage, in 1888, with Amelie Rives, and that it culminated nine years later, when his brothers and sisters, acting through the instrumentality of the late Stanford White, his false friend, lured him to New York for the purpose of having him incarcerated for life in Bloomingdale, all of which, he remarks, is fully set forth in his book, "Four Years Behind the Bars of Bloomingdale."

He also gives his reasons at length for giving his money to educational purposes and for selecting the University of Virginia in particular. As showing the bent of his mind toward fostering the liberal arts, he narrates his efforts to establish a fund for the maintenance and encouragement of students of art, which he called the Paris prize fund, to which he contributes liberally. The University of Virginia he regarded as of the very first class, wherein the standard of honor among the students is as high as the standard of their scholarship must be to obtain a degree.

Mr. Chanler refers to the fact that in 1895 he made a will leaving the bulk of his property to the rector and visitors of that institution.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 16. State attorneys will make no further effort to bar out of the Thaw trial evidence tending to prove the weak mental condition of the prisoner. Attorneys for the defense will henceforth proceed with greater caution in the introduction of testimony along the same lines. These facts developed early today.

At the same time, the prospect of the proceedings being halted on Monday while a fight is made over an insanity commission, loomed up larger than ever.

Any possibility of a lunacy commission being asked for by the defense has been removed, if, indeed, any ever existed. On the other hand, any such move on the part of the State will be bitterly fought.

There is now good reason to believe that Jerome's statement yesterday that he would not antagonize the defense should it see fit to ask for an insanity commission, was only a feeler to draw out the defenses and ascertain its feelings in the matter. If so, it served its purpose.

Howard Nesbit will probably not take the stand in the Thaw trial. A report two days ago that he had split with District Attorney Jerome was denied. It is understood, however, that there was some break, and that in view of the mass of compulsive evidence the defense has massed under which it expects to bury the boy's testimony it is now the opinion that Jerome will not attempt to use him. It is also reasonably certain that no evidence or depositions from Mrs. Holman, Evelyn's mother, will be used. Evidence which is counted on to offset any adverse testimony of Evelyn's blood relatives will be introduced by Mrs. J. J. Caine, the young wife's bosom friend. It is said that she is prepared to swear to having heard Harry Thaw offer Mrs. Holman $100,000 for Evelyn's hand in marriage. Mrs. Caine declares that she will reveal dickerings and negotiations of the mother which will show her in a light to make her testimony unenviable.

As indicative of the sentiment throughout the country that Harry K. Thaw may not suffer for his killing of Stanford White, the gambling element is offering odds on the several propositions of acquittal, conviction, disagreement of jury.

A hurry call and a mandatory order caused Evelyn Thaw to turn back after she had entered the Tombs shortly before noon to visit her husband, and hasten to the office of Attorney Delmas, chief of her husband's counsel. A desire to know just how she figured in the divorce case of George Lederer, the theatrical manager, is said to have prompted Delmas to seek a full explanation. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw did not figure prominently in the case, and was never served with papers, though the fact was printed that she was named as a co-respondent by Mrs. Lederer. She has always maintained that her name was dragged in without warrant. This afternoon it was learned that Delmas had heard of her connection with the case for the first time today, and that he immediately insisted on knowing all the details.

Shortly after noon it was learned that there would be an important secret conference of all the Thaw counsel late this afternoon. It is said that Delmas fears surprises when Evelyn is placed on the stand for cross-examination, and that at the conference late this afternoon at which her husband will be present, the importance of keeping nothing from Thaw's attorneys will be urged upon her and another recital of the story of her life will be held.

The bobbing up at this time of the Lederer incident in connection with Evelyn Thaw is attributed by Thaw's attorney's to Abe Hummel, who acted as the girl's attorney at the time the Lederer divorce proceedings were filed. It is intimated that Hummel has made revelations to the District Attorney in retaliation for Evelyn's description of him on the witness stand, when she referred to him as "a little Jew, with a big head and warts all over his face."

Plot to Blow up Cruiser.

Vallejo, Cal., Feb. 16.—Through an investigation started at the Mare Island navy yard, it has become known that a plot was recently discovered to cause an explosion on the United States cruiser Yorktown, which undoubtedly would have caused her to sink at sea. Rivets had been removed from her boiler and only the discovery of the fact prevented a repetion of the Bennington horror. The Yorktown was to have sailed to Magdalena Bay to guard American interests. In examing her boilers preparatory to the departure of the cruiser the removal of the rivets was discovered. The Chicago was then substituted for the Yorktown and sailed for Central American waters. A rigid investigation is being made to discover the miscreants who tempered with the boilers. Developments of a sensational nature are said to have come ont at the inquiry, but they are being kept secret.

"Disclosures" of a Spiritualist.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 16.—Prof. Arthur Roberts, head of the Spiritualists of Wisconsin said after a trance Friday night. "Harry Thaw will never be found guilty of the murder of Stanford White, although there will be two or more ministrals. One of the women principals in the case will be murdered within a year by shooting and the murdered will be a man who also is involved in the case. Stanford White barely escaped being murdered when he was 20 years old by a man whose first name was William, and whose last name began with 'R' for the same reason that led Harry Thaw to shoot him. Stanford White also was involved in a scandal over a young girl in the late eighties at either San Francisco or Los Angeles, which nearly resulted in a murder. White was something of a medium."

Resignation.

New York, Feb. 16.—President O. C. Barber, of the United Box Board and Paper Company, today tendered his resignation to the directors. No action has been taken yet toward filling the vacancy. Friction between President Barber and certain stockholders regarding financial matters is said to have caused the resignation, although no official explanation of his action has been given.

Killed by Explosion on Steamer.

New York, Feb. 16.—News of a terrible disaster which occurred aboard the ship on February 13, resulting in the death of seven persons and serious injury of three others, was brought by the Hamburg-American liner Valdivia on her arrival from Haytian ports today. The explosion of the boiler of the donkey engine caused the disaster, and in addition to causing so many casualties badly damaged the steamer. A panic followed the explosion which completely enveloped the steamer with steam, and it was all the crew could do to prevent some of the alarmed passengers from jumping into the sea.

Ample evidence of the ruin caused by the explosion was presented by the appearance of the vessel. Her funnel was knocked out by the explosion, her deck ripped open and the upper structure generally damaged.

The explosion came without warning about 11:15 Wednesday morning. Three men who were near the engine were blown to atoms and four others persons were killed outright. Boiling water and steam scalded three others, inflicting terrible burns.

In a second steam began pouring out of the great hole torn in the deck, and the steamer was completely enveloped, shutting out the upper structure and rigging from sight. The smoke stack crashed down into the deck and bits of debris which had been blown high in the air fell in showers.

Several of the dead were horribly mangled. They were buried at sea.

The chief officer who was on the bridge, when the accident occurred, was buried under the debris, but escaped with slight injuries. All of the inner structure abaft of the engine was gutted and the life boats damaged. The machinery was not affected and the steamer came into port under her own steam.

The United States and Japan.

London, Feb. 16.—A special to the Times from Tokio today denies emphatically, and apparently on good authority, that a solution of San Francisco trouble has been agreed to by Japan, the basis of which will be the restriction of the admission of Japanese laborers to America.

The consensus of opinion of those high in British international affairs is that the report is entirely erroneous, inasmuch as it does not in any sense reflect the temper of the Japanese people.

It is predicted here that the matter has not been passed upon by the Mikado, and that when he does declare himself, his expression will be more startling than anything which has so far cropped out in the controversy.

Trouble in the Solomon Islands.

Victoria, Feb. 16.—The steamer Miowara has brought news that constant troubles are occurring in the Solomon Islands, caused by natives expelled from Queensland following the enactment of "white Australia laws.

The Promotheus, a British warship, placed near the group to protect the returning blacks, shelled the village of Sieuwa Don Militia, which so badly frightened the natives that they took to the brush and have not returned.

The missionaries fear a massacre by the villagers, who resent the intrusion of the blacks.

From Papua comes news of a punitive expedition following a raid by cannibals on a Cape Cupola village, two children being killed and eaten at a cannibal feast.

The Missing Treasurer.

New Britain, Conn., Feb. 16.—William F. Walker, the defaulting treasurer of the Savings Bank, of New Britain, is believed to have boarded a vessel bound from New York to Mexico and that the vessel will be boarded by detectives at an American port where it stops and there is strong hope that Walker will be caught. Hope of recovering the bulk of the missing securities has dwindled, and it is now thought he carried very little with him when he went away. The bank officials reported today that they had recovered $6,000 worth of bonds, reducing the shortage to $559,000, but they did not disclose the source of their recovery.

Battle Imminent.

Tangier, Morocco, Feb. 16.—Another serious battle between government forces and the followers of Raisuli, the noted bandit, is imminent. A detachment of loyal troops which is pursuing Raisuli into the mountain south of Tangier is expected to reach his camp within a short time, and a battle is sure to follow. Sidi Gabbas, the Moroccan minister of war, commands the Sultan's forces which number 4,000 infantry, 500 cavalry and eight cannon. Raisuli is encamped with a native tribe. His forces will have advantages of position and knowing the country perfectly it is freely predicted that if a battle is fought, the bandit will be victorious.

Princess Clementine Dead.

Vienna, Feb. 16.—Princess Clementine of Coburg, mother of Prince Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, died here today at the age of 89. Princess Clementine was considered the most able woman in Europe and was the real ruler of Bulgaria. She aimed at big things and would stop at nothing to attain her ends. It has been generally believed she ordered the assassination of former Premier Stephani Stambuloff, who was killed July 15, 1895, shortly after being retired from the premiership.

GREATER ALEXANDRIA.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Years ago the Gazette showed its interest in the development of Alexandria and our State by publishing many letters on that subject from my brother, the late H. T. Douglas, C. E. I ask the use of your columns to lay before your readers the great possibilities of Alexandria, providing a proper effort is made to develop those possibilities.

Alexandria is essentially a part of "Greater Washington" and at this time when the national capital is being boomed it is most opportune that Greater Alexandria should begin to grow to those proportions which nature and the position it holds to Washington make possible. Alexandria is the natural port of Washington and while Washington will grow to the north, east and west, it will grow also south, extending beyond the present limits of Alexandria. While manufacturing establishments will extend the greater city in other directions Alexandria will grow to be a manufacturing and distributing city, not only on its own merits but as part of the greater city. Thus Homestead and other cities around Pittsburg, Pa., are independent of and yet are part of Pittsburg.

The great need to give Alexandria a boom that in the next ten years will make her a city of 50,000 population is to connect your city with the iron ores and coalfields of West Virginia in the most direct manner possible. A railroad from Broadway, Rockingham county, Va., or from Harrisonburg, Va., on the Southern Railway to the red and other ores of Pendleton county, W. Va., and to the coking coals of Randolph and Upshur counties, W. Va., would connect Alexandria with the great iron ore and coal deposit of West Virginia. Or a railroad from Bluemont Loudoun county, through Hampshire, Hardy and Grant counties, W. Va., would answer this purpose; at the sametime opening up timber and other resources which would enable your city to offer great inducements to other industries. This would enable Alexandria to offer the best manufacturing facilities to all lines of iron, steel and lumber industries, and in fact would be the basis for every line of industry. It is true your city can at present offer great inducements to manufacturers, but great as it can now, then it can offer business propositions that will be sure to be heeded, because then its advantages will be exceptionally good. Alexandria, as largely the shipping and manufacturing point of "Greater Washington" has a future in any event, but with the proper effort made she can reap the benefits at once instead of having to wait long years for this realization. Alexandria should become the great armor plate manufacturing point—at least in your city there should be an armor experiment plant conducted by a private company under direct government supervision. This could easily grow into a great enterprise, the proportions of which, at present, we could hardly conceive.

The red and red fossilliferous and brown iron ores of West Virginia are the same class of ores which is the basis of the great iron and steel industry of Tennessee and Birmingham, Alabama. The success of the Basic steel process, eliminating phosphosus, gives a much greater value to this class of iron ores than existed only nine years ago.

In other articles I will write more in detail on this subject.

Respectfully yours,
W. G. DOUGLAS.

CONGRESSIONAL.

After another day of discussion on the immigration conference report, the Senate yesterday agreed to vote on the matter before adjournment today.

After defeating the provision for a gun foundry at the Washington navy yard, the House passed the naval appropriation bill. Five hours were consumed in debate on the measure.

The postoffice appropriation bill was taken up and an agreement was made that general debate should cease at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday.

The House agreed to the conference report on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill.

The House adopted a rule to begin its daily sessions at 11 a. m., instead of at noon.

Disastrous Fire.

A fire which started in a row of frame houses on the east side of Alfred street, between Oronoco and Pendleton, about a quarter past nine o'clock last night, partially destroyed twelve houses. The fire was burning at midnight, although it had been gotten under control before that time and did not spread to contiguous buildings.

Mrs. Sarah E. Skillman, an elderly lady, who lived in one of the houses which was destroyed, was suffering from consumption, and was taken to the home of Mr. John Travers, on Oronoco street, and was removed to the hospital afterwards. She was carried from the burning building by Mr. Travers' and Mr. E. R. Shinn. As quickly as possible she was placed in the ambulance and the vehicle started for the hospital, but Mrs. Skillman died before reaching that institution.

The fire department was on the ground as soon as possible, but the flames spread with such rapidity that the occupants of the houses had scarcely time to escape, and were unable to save any of their belongings.

Robert Smith, a volunteer, who was endeavoring to save some of the effects in the house of Orlando H. Daniels, was overcome by smoke and fell senseless on the floor. He was rescued after much exertion and fighting with the flames and smoke.

The origin of the fire is uncertain, but it is said that it was caused by a defective flue in one of the houses about the middle of the row.

The loss on buildings is estimated at $8,000 and $2,000 to furniture. In only some instances were there any insurance either on the buildings or the furniture. Some of the houses were owned by the occupants, but the majority in the row were tenements.

The homes occupied by the following persons and their families were destroyed: Orlando H. Daniels, Oliver Bogue, Peyton T. Everett, H. K. Henderson, Thomas Henderson, Robert R. Robey, Clarence Taylor, George K. Ballard, Edgar Padgett, A. H. Elliott, Chales Bell, and Mrs. Jenkins.

In the course of the fire a whisky barrel in the saloon of Peyton T. Everett, exploded with a loud noise. The flying fragments were scattered in every direction, falling upon some of the firemen.

Policeman Jones had a narrow escape while engaged in rescue work in the second story of one of the tenements. The roof caved in on him, and he had much difficulty in making his way to a window, when he was assisted to the ground on a ladder.

The houses were constructed about twenty years ago by Mr. A. J. Wedderburn, and the row bore his name.

Mr George Welker was badly burned about his face and hands at the fire. He had just entered one of the houses with the hose when an explosion of some kind occurred resulting in Mr. Welker being painfully hurt. He is being attended by Dr. Gorman.

On his return to the Columbia engine house this morning Driver Henry Posey got on a ladder to hang up the harness when he fell and badly sprained his foot.

So far as known the property was insured for $7,050. Of this amount the companies represented by Schneider & Warfield had issued policies amounting to $4,200; M. B. Harlow & Co., $1,450, L. Stabler, $1,400.

One of the houses was recently insured by the owner who lives in Washington. A short time afterward the wife of the man came here and directed the insurance agent to cancel the policy. She was advised to let it remain but she insisted and the policy was cancelled. Last night the property was entirely consumed.

This morning Mayor Paff, Police Chief Pettey, Aldermen ll, City Sergeant Cox and delegation of ladies of the narities and devised means shelter and food for those all at the fire last night. change of views it was de- contributions for the suf- e who want to aid in the k can leave their contribu- ng stores of E. L. Allen and W. F. Creighton. All contributions are to be turned over to the Co-operative Charities, the relief committee of which will distributed them among the sufferers.

The Mayor urges that prompt response be made to the request for aid for the sufferers who are in very needy circumstances. Already, it is said, several contributions have been made.

Final arrangements have been completed for the band concert to be given by the George Washington Birthday Association on the 22nd instant on Washington street near Christ Church. The concert will begin at 1 p. m. The music will be discoursed by the Naval Gun Factory Band of thirty pieces, under the direction of Prof. Jacob G. Moody, Bandmaster. The following will be the programme: March, "The Diplomat," John Philip Sousa: Overture, "Tannhauser," Wagner; Concert Waltz, "Moonlight on the Hudson," Hermann; Trombone Solo, "World's Fair Polka," Marsh (Mr. Albert Schlenker, soloist); Grand Fantasia on "My Old Kentucky Home," Dalbey (variations for all instruments); Medley, "George Washington jr.; Cohen; Grand American Fantasia, "America Forever," Theo Moses Tobani. After 45 minutes' intermission the concert will be continued as follows: March, "Brooks Chicago Marine Band," Seitz; overture, "Poet and Peasant," F. von Suppe; waltz, "Golden Sunset," John T. Hall; Medley overture, "When the Whippowill Sings, Marguerite," Helf & Hager; selection from opera, "Il Trovatore," Verdi; march comique, "Old Settlers on Parade," Dalbey; finale, "Star Spangled Banner," Key.

The Washington Birthday Association will meet on Monday night at the Friendship Hall. All who have contributed to former celebrations are members of the association. As heretofore stated, the observances will begin at ten o'clock in the morning, when a committee will go to Mount Vernon and place a wreath on the tomb. At eleven o'clock services will be held at Christ Church, at 1 o'clock a band concert will be held at the corner of Washington and Cameron streets. At 2:30 o'clock the bi-annual banquet will be held at McBurney's Hall. Banquet tickets are now being issued by Mr. Harry Hammond, treasurer of the association. The sale of tickets will close promptly at noon on Wednesday. It is the earnest hope of the association that all who desire tickets will have themselves listed at once.

Fined Fifty Dollars Each.

The only case before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of Fred Jones and John Toliver, both colored, who had been arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Garvey, Talbot, Bell and Beach charged with promoting policy. Jones was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen, and having plead guilty, was fined $50. Toliver had confessed to the officers when taken in custody, and he was also fined $50. Slips and other evidences of policy playing were found on the accused.

After the arrest of Jones and Toliver Chief Goods, who had previously sworn out a warrant, accompanied by Officers Roberts, Young, Nicholson and Jones proceeded to a house near the corner of Duke and Henry streets where it was believed policy was conducted. They found a small printing press, a wheel used in which tickets are placed, many slips and other gambling paraphernalia. The place was deserted when the officers entered the building. They brought the press, wheel, slips, &c., to the station house.

St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Father O'Hora, of the Apostolic Mission House, Washington, D. C., will deliver a sermon at the vespers at 7:30 tomorrow in St. Mary's Church. Father O'Hora is an eloquent speaker, holding a very high position today amongst pulpit orators in America. Both Catholics and non-Catholics will be edified tomorrow in St. Mary's by this gifted preacher. Next Sunday, the 24th of February, the Father of the Virginia Apostolate will open a mission in St. Mary's Church at High Mass to continue for two weeks. The first week will be for members of the parish and all interested. The second week will be devoted to the explanation of Catholic doctrine and practices, for the benefit of non-Catholics and all who wish to have an authoritative explanation of Catholic teaching. All are cordially invited to attend both missions. The order of the mission exercises will be announced next Sunday at both masses. Tomorrow the annual collection taken up at all the masses will be for the Indian and Negro Missions.

The New Electric Plant.

The Alexandria Electric Light Company has taken possession of the old city electric plant which has been shut down and hereafter the city will be lighted by the new company. The old plant has not been in operation since Thursday. The brilliancy of the new lamps seemed to have increased last night and in a few days everything at the new plant will be running smoothly and all the lamps in the city will be burning. The new company expects to give employment to some of the men at the old works. The old plant, wires and lamps will soon be removed.

Use a little KODOL after your meals and it will be found to afford a prompt and efficient relief. KODOL nearly approximates the digestive juices. It digests what you eat. It is sold on a guaranteed relief plan. Sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Struck by Train.

A south bound electric train struck a man at the corner of Fourteenth and B streets, Washington, early last night. The man was knocked down, and it was thought at first that he had been seriously if not fatally injured, but later it was ascertained that he had been but slightly hurt. Samuel Parks, of this city, the motorman of the train, was taken in custody, but soon released, as it was shown that he was not responsible for the accident.

THIS IS NOT

one of the contestants in the six days walking match at Madison Square Garden, New York.—This is a woman ironing—that is, she is ironing when she is not running to and from the stove changing irons—but most of her time is spent doing the latter.

Electric Flat Irons eliminate the "walking match."—They quickly, and stay hot, and maintain an even temperature all the time—no fire to keep going when the iron is not in use.

If you want a publication that serves up so much gore and so many thrills in every issue and do not care whether what you read is true or false, it is money thrown away to buy the Tribune. If, however, you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. The Daily Tribune contains special articles on nearly every subject which interests intelligent and clean minded people, to say nothing of the instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music, art and the drama. Wants His Stomach.

Peter Jordan, fairly well dressed, but lacking funds, is hastening to Philadelphia from Cleveland, Ohio, as fast as freight trains and sympathetic brakemen will take him. He wants his stomach. His brother has it. Peter told Police Judge Whelan in Cleveland yesterday that, if necessary, he would replevin the very useful bit of internal mechanism.

He and his brother John lived in Philadelphia, and both were stricken with stomach trouble and went to a hospital for treatment.

"John was addicted to liquor and used cuss words," said Jordan. "I was a church member and a tetotaler. While we were unconscious in the hospital being operated on, the boiler, or something exploded, and the doctor and nurses ran out and left us. Not much damage was done by the explosion, and they came back.

"We both got better, and later I found I had contracted the liquor habit, while my brother joined the church. I could not understand this change in me, neither could my friends. I became discouraged and went West. A week ago, while I was out in Frisco I got a letter from the doctor who performed the operation in the hospital. Here it is. It says:

"'In the panic during the explosion at the time of your operation, a nurse has confessed to me she mixed your and your brother's stomachs.'

"Judge, I'm on my way back to Philadelphia to replevin that stomach and make the doctors put it back where it belongs."

"Go," said the Judge.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Bride Attempts Suicide.

Miss Nora Ramsay, a pretty young society woman of Asheville, N. C., it is said, has made several attempts to kill herself, as the result of discovering that her marriage last week, a runaway affair, to R. C. Bradley, who had been a visitor at Asheville was bogus. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay went to the Hotel Berkley at Asheville. Early the following morning Miss Ramsay learned of the true situation of affairs. She went home and has been almost completely prostrated ever since. Shortly after going to her home she drank the entire contents to a two-ounce vial of laudanum, and when she was restored to consciousness by physicians, expressed the regret that they had not let her die. Bradley left Asheville, and although everything is being done to find him he has not been seen or heard of since. Miss Ramsay met Bradley at Asheville several months ago, and it seemed to be a case of love at first sight. Miss Ramsay is seventeen years old.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste imitates closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Piles of people have Piles. Why suffer from piles when you can use DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve and get relief. Nothing else so good. Beware of imitations. See that the name is stamped on each box. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Maniac After Roosevelt.

A well-dressed man, evidently of unsound mind, entered the Central Police Station in the City Hall at Chicago yesterday and attempted to shoot Capt. P. D. O'Brien, of the detective bureau. The man placed a revolver close to Captain O'Brien's head, saying: "You're Roosevelt, ain't you?" Captain O. Brien sprang up, knocked the man down and took the revolver away. He was attacked by the insane man, but after a desperate fight subdued him. With the assistance of other officers the man was placed in a cell, where he became extremely violent, it being necessary for several officers to hold him on the floor to prevent him from dashing his brains out against the wall. Later he was removed to the hospital for the detention of the insane. Nothing found on him indicated his identity.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed air-passage. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the remedy in solid form and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
